Frequently Asked Questions:

- What is the Geoffrey Kier Memorial Athletic Excellence Scholarship?

Recognition of a college-bound senior student-athlete(s) who exemplifies excellence in academics and athletics. They should exhibit strong leadership skills and a positive sporting attitude who is a well-rounded individual with interests ranging from sports and academics to clubs and other activities.

- How was this scholarship started?

During the early 1990's, McLeod Sports Medicine established a community-based event to raise money in support of academic and athletic excellence in the form of a scholarship to college bound individuals. The Geoffrey Kier Memorial Athletic Excellence Scholarship is to honor the memory of the former McLeod employee who died of meningitis in 1998. Today the scholarship continues through an endowment that was able to be created due to the generous donations of many sponsors and individuals over the years as well as continued annual contributions.

- How does the judging process take place?

We have invited various McLeod employees that have no relation to the schools directly to avoid bias. Scoring rubric is attached at the end of this scholarship application packet.

Scholarship Video Questions to choose from and Directions:

Video Directions: Pick one of the three following questions to answer. Film a video response to answer that question/topic you choose. Videos can be made through any platform but must be uploaded to YouTube. Again, the video needs to be no less than 1 minute long and no longer than 3 minutes.

1. Show us your passions in life and how they will be enhanced by the scholarship if you win?
2. Recreate the most influential time in sports that happened to you. Also show us how this will shape you in the future.
3. Reenact your most memorable day from high school and why it is so memorable.

A few reminders: Make your video as creative as possible, there are no limitations except that it must be school appropriate. All inappropriate videos are subject to disqualification. BE CREATIVE AND MAKE YOUR VIDEO FUN TO WATCH; SHOWING ENERGY AND PASSION WILL GIVE THE VIDEO A GREATER CHANCE TO WIN.

Skits, music, dancing, pictures, a slide show, etc. are examples are all welcomed and recommended.

How to Make a YouTube account: As a reminder, if you already have a Gmail account then you automatically have a YouTube account. If you do not you will need to set up a YouTube account. Record yourself on some form of electronic device. Post video on YouTube account as Unlisted, if the video is made as unlisted, the video is private and no one else will be able to see it. Once the scholarship winners have been awarded you may delete your video on your YouTube account.

 When finished, please email scholarship application packet with YouTube video link to Kierscholarship@mcleodhealth.org
