- 2013 - McLeod Home Health has been named as one of the Top 100 Home Health agencies in the country. The only performance recognition of its kind in the home health industry, the 2013 Top 100 HomeCare Elite acknowledgement places McLeod Home Health in the top one percent of home health agencies in the United States. In addition, McLeod Home Health is the only agency in South Carolina included in the Top 100 ranking. HomeCare Elite is a compilation of the top-performing home health agencies by OCS HomeCare and DecisionHealth. Winners are ranked by an analysis of publicly available performance measures in quality outcomes, best practice (process measure) implementation, patient experience (Home Health CAHPS), quality improvement and consistency, and financial performance. Out of 9,969 home health agencies considered, only 2,496 are elite.

- 2012 and 2013 - McLeod Regional Medical Center and McLeod Dillon received a Safety Score of A from the Leapfrog Group. The Leapfrog Group Hospital Safety Score Program grades hospitals on their overall performance in keeping patients safe from preventable harm and medical errors. The Leapfrog Group's goal of saving lives and reducing harm focuses on measuring and publicly reporting hospital performance through the annual hospital safety score. The grades are derived from expert analysis of publicly available data using 26 evidence-based, national measures of hospital safety. The Leapfrog Group is an independent, national, not-for-profit organization founded by the nation's leading employers and private healthcare experts. The mission of the Leapfrog Group is to encourage giant "leaps" forward in the safety, quality and affordability of healthcare in the United States by promoting transparency and value-based hospital incentives.
- 2012 - McLeod Regional Medical Center and McLeod Loris were ranked among the top hospitals around the state in the new Consumer Reports hospital safety ratings, according to their Hospital Safety Rating Article in the August, 2012 edition. These Ratings are based on six categories of patient safety: hospital-acquired infections, readmissions, communication about medications and discharge, CT scanning, complications, and mortality. The data comes from the federal Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, state governments, and the Leapfrog Group, an independent organization that collects information on hospital safety.
- 2012 - McLeod Regional Medical Center is one of the top performing hospitals in the country for 2011, and has been recognized for its participation in a national project that resulted in saving lives and reducing healthcare spending by more than $4 billion. Over the past three years, 278 hospitals including McLeod participated in a national collaborative led by Premier Healthcare Alliance called QUEST®. As part of this initiative, these top performing hospitals saved an estimated 24,820 lives and reduced healthcare spending by nearly $4.5 billion. McLeod is among the hospitals that have optimized acute care and crossed the Top Performance Threshold in all three measured categories: Mortality, Evidence-based care and Cost, according to Premier.
- 2011 - McLeod Home Health has been named as one of the Top 500 Home Health agencies in the country. The only performance recognition of its kind in the home health industry, the 2011 Top 500 HomeCare Elite™ acknowledgment places McLeod Home Health in the top five percent of home health agencies in the U.S.
