McLeod Dillon Delivers Health Services along the South & North Carolina Border

McLeod Dillon stands as a proud member of the McLeod Health system that stretches from the Midlands to the Coast of South Carolina. McLeod Dillon continues its tradition of bringing health care to Dillon and the bordering counties of South and North Carolina with a valuable complement of inpatient and outpatient services. McLeod Dillon has 79 acute care beds, cardiac, women's, surgical, orthopedic and other services.

In addition to fiscal stability, McLeod Health brings to our hospital its nationally recognized processes and efforts to ensure patient safety and improve the quality of care.
